LETTER DATED 20 JANUARY 1994 FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The members of the Council have reviewed your report concerning the cooperation between the United Nations and regional arrangements and organizations with regard to international peace and security (S/25996 and Corr.1 and Add.1-5). This is a subject the members of the Council consider very important.

On behalf of the members of the Security Council, I wish to thank you for your report and for the efforts that went into soliciting and collating the documents it contains. The members of the Council request you to convey to regional arrangements and organizations concerned their gratitude for their contributions, and to send them copies of the report in question.

The members of the Council recall that the United Nations is at this very moment in a number of instances engaged in such cooperation, in efforts to resolve difficult problems in various parts of the world.

They would welcome any further responses from regional arrangements and organizations. They would also welcome an addendum to the report in which you would elaborate on your views on this subject and present your analysis and assessment of the actual experiences of cooperation that have taken place and on the prospect for future such cooperation.

During the consideration of the report, it was suggested that it might be useful to hold a seminar on these issues, with the participation of interested delegations, of the United Nations Secretariat and of representatives of interested regional arrangements and organizations.

(Signed) Karel KOVANDA
President of the Security Council
